

Subject: Re: Oldham genealogy

Date: Wed, 24 Jul 1996 18:32:50 -0700 (PDT)

From: Elva Coombs <skipper@teleport.com>

To: Jan Oldham <joldham@indy.net>

At 08:00 PM 7/20/96 -0700, you wrote:

>Have you ever cleared up the confusion on the early Oldham family line as >detailed in your message of Dec 17 1994? We seem to run into this same >confusion. Has anyone confirmed lineage of John of Northumberland, died >1708? I would sure like to find the answer.

>

>I e-mailed you several months ago before I had verified my husband's >Oldham lineage. We have found and verified back to James son of John of >Northumberland, but then ran into this puzzle.

>

>We are interested in all the Oldham history we can find. We seem to be >short on some of the history and could use any information (especially >family stories about the actual people) that we can find.

>

>Any help would be appreciated. I would be glad to send you our group >sheets if they would be of any help. Or we have several old family photos >of the George Washington Oldham branch of the family here in Indiana.

>

>Thanks
>Jan Oldham

>

>Jan, No I haven't anything new. But I do have a plane ticket to Salt Lake on Oct. 6. So I hope I can get some work done on this family at that time.

Have you been in touch with Hank & Barbara Balough? They are researching Oldhams also: hankbalough@netins.net

→ Contact

Stay in touch.

Elva Coombs
skipper@teleport.com

Subject: Re: Oldham Genealogy

Date: Tue, 21 May 1996 00:07:38 -0700 (PDT)

From: Elva Coombs <skipper@teleport.com>

To: Jan Oldham <joldham@indy.net>

At 08:56 AM 5/20/96 -0700, you wrote:

>If you don't mind I will keep your message. Have been told this line of >the Oldham's came through VA and the Cumberland Gap. Also researching >the BOYER family of VA. Attempting to locate an Eliza BOYER who has some >relation to William Brewster and Edward Fuller of Plymouth MASS.
>

Sure, if you can get your line back past the Revolution, write me again.
Actually the first John Oldham came to MA in 1623 and about ten yrs later settled on the CT River where Windsor is today. He was killed by Indians in 1636. It is said that his son John was captured by the Indians at the same time and later escaped. He may be the one who first came to VA. There are a number of stories about the early Oldhams in different books I have read.

Elva Coombs

Subject: Re: Oldham Genealogy

Date: Sun, 19 May 1996 21:13:21 -0700 (PDT)

From: Elva Coombs <skipper@teleport.com>

To: Jan Oldham <joldham@indy.net>

At 10:40 AM 5/18/96 -0700, you wrote:

>researching Oldham genealogy Fayette County and Hancock County, Indiana.

>Stuck at parents of Clarence Elmer Oldham b 1891 d 1958 m Gladys Marie

>Forsythe. Think Clarence Elmer's parents are buried in Franklin

>Cemetery. Have pictures of family, but some remain unidentified. Any >assistance would be appreciated. Robert Forsyth and Janis Oldham

>

>I wish I could help. My Oldhams are in the 1700s in VA.

Elva Coombs

skipper@teleport.com