Dear Mrs. Oldham:

Thank you so much for accepting my telephone call. I know I assembled a package of information for you right after our telephone conversation, however, I can't remember if I mailed it out or not. Since I couldn't find a copy of my letter, I decided it was better to re-mail the information on the chance I had misplaced it.

As you can see I have received some information on the line of James Oldham, Jr., however, I am always trying to fill in more empty lines. Any information you would be willing to share will be appreciated.

I have enclosed a copy of my husband's Ancestor Tree which goes back to John and Abigail Oldham in Virginia. There seem to be some disputes in the research I have been given, however, I have decided to leave things as they are until I see the other researcher's documentation.

I would appreciate any information you can furnish, and will gladly forward copies of any information I have that you might wish to have.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely

Jan Oldham
