Notes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Since daughter Mary J. was born in MO about 1859 - it appears her mother and father went to MO with the Mother's father Benjamin then returned to IL after Benjamin died in MO. ----- From Bill Arnold's papers: In 1876 William Asbury bought 80 acres in Watson Township, Effingham Co, IL. Before this he farmed in Bishop Township, Effingham County, IL. He was a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church (Loy Methodist Church) and in political views, he was a republican, strong in the council of his party, but he never accepted public office. Their children were Barbara, Margaret Emma, Jemima, Bartlett and George F.
